

Mark Russo

Mark Russo was elected to the Rockwall City Council in May of 2008 and currently serves as Mayor Pro Tem. Prior to serving on the City Council, he served on the city's Historic Preservation Advisory Board. He currently works as a media producer and consultant. He also serves as a leader in various political organizations. He enjoys being active in the community and interacting with the citizens. He holds degrees in Broadcasting from the Ohio Center for Broadcasting and in Culinary Arts from Pennsylvania Culinary.