

Emergency exercise planned for Feb. 27

Rockwall County and the cities of Rockwall, Heath, Royse City, Fate and McClendon Chisholm will conduct an emergency exercise on Saturday, February 27 from 8-11 a.m. near the intersection of T.L. Townsend and Whitmore Drive in the City of Rockwall.

The exercise is intended to allow local responders in fire, police, public works and emergency medical services practice their emergency roles in response to a weather emergency. The agencies involved will take part in simulating their duties called for in the Rockwall County Emergency Plan.

Residents can expect to see fire trucks, ambulances, police cars and other official traffic engaged in the practice exercise, so please do not be alarmed by this activity.

For further information, please call Rockwall County Emergency Management at 972-204-7080.
