

Dana Macalik

Dana Macalik was elected to the Rockwall City Council in May 2017. Dana is a 5th generation resident of Rockwall, having attended all years in Rockwall schools, graduating from Rockwall High School in 1980. Dana raised her family in Rockwall, with one son graduating from Rockwall High School and two sons from Rockwall-Heath High School. She has been active in the Rockwall community serving in various leadership roles. She and her husband, Jeff have four adult children: Julie, Robert, Austin and Eric, along with daughter-in-law, Katy and grandson, Lance.

Since 2011, her professional experience includes being the President of the Rockwall Area Chamber of Commerce and Visitors Center where she oversees the daily operations and leadership of the organization. In this capacity, she supports businesses, leaders and citizens expanding economic development opportunities. Recently Dana led the Chamber to receive 4-Star accreditation, the second highest in the nation from the U.S. Chamber of Commerce for Operational Excellence. Prior to her role with the Chamber, Dana spent more than 25 years in sales and marketing management with various organizations.

Dana received her B.A. in Marketing from Sam Houston State University, and graduated from Loyola Marymount University in Los Angeles, California with a professional development degree in Institute of Organizational Management (IOM). She is a 2013 graduate of Leadership Rockwall and is currently completing her certification as a Professional Community and Economic Developer (PCED). Dana is a member of the First Baptist Church of Rockwall and Rockwall Noon Rotary.