

Dennis Lewis

Dennis Lewis was elected to the Rockwall City Council in 2012 and served as Mayor Pro Tem from January 2015 until May 2016. He and his wife, Clarissa, have been married for thirty-nine years and along with their three children, Tiffany, Brett and Elise, moved to Rockwall in 1993. All three children are Rockwall High School graduates as is their son-in-law Ryan. They have four grandchildren. Dennis and Clarissa are active members of Lakepointe Church where Dennis helps teach a Life Group class. Prior to being elected to the City Council, Dennis served on the Rockwall Planning and Zoning Commission. He is a former coach in the Rockwall Baseball Association and coached a Rockwall based select baseball team.

Dennis is the Past President and a past Board Member of the American Subcontractors Association (ASA) – North Texas Chapter, is a former board member of ASA of Texas and is a former board member and still actively involved with the Texas Construction Association. He currently serves as a member of the ASA – National Organization’s Task Force on Ethics in Construction. Dennis also currently serves on the Board of Directors of Meals on Wheels Senior Services of Rockwall County. He is also on the Board of Directors of the Construction Education Foundation (CEF). Dennis is a graduate of Texas A&M University. He is Vice-President of Potter Concrete, Ltd headquartered in Irving, Texas.