

Patrick Trowbridge

Patrick Trowbridge was elected to the Rockwall City Council in May 2018. He and his wife Elizabeth (or Coach T to the PE students of Hartman Elementary) have been married for over 25+ years and are the proud parents of their daughter, Clara a sophomore at Rockwall High School. Patrick and his family have been lovingly restoring the home of J.A. Wilkerson -- one of the oldest brick homes in Rockwall -- and are active neighborhood participants in the Old Town Rockwall Neighborhood Association.

Patrick is a native Texan and grew up in Richardson, TX. He is a Senior Vice President with US Bank, N.A. and has been a Relationship Manager for nearly 30 years in the real estate banking industry. He is or has been a member of the Texas Real Estate Council, Urban Land Institute, RMA and NAREIT. He holds a BBA-Finance Banking degree from the University of North Texas along with post-graduate work from the same university. He has previously been an active YMCA volunteer and served as Vice Chairman for the City of Rockwall's Planning and Zoning Commission since 2015.
