Also present, City of Rockwall Community Relations Manager, Bethany Browning and Isaac Davies, Muralist.

2. DISCUSSION/ACTION ITEMS

A. Review and take action on minutes from the November 21, 2016 Art Commission meeting.

B. Review and discuss Isaac Davies's amended proposed artwork for a mural to be located at 110 S. Goliad Street and take any necessary action.

Mr. Davies distributed the proposed mural for the commissioners' review. Commissioners agreed on the artwork, stating they were pleased with the design and anxious for Isaac to begin painting. Kathleen Morrow made a motion to accept the amended proposed artwork to be located at 110 S. Goliad and asked staff liaison Browning to prepare the recommendation for city councilmembers approval. Betty Hoaglund seconded the motion and it passed unanimously 5-0. Isaac stated that if weather was not a factor, he could install the mural in January and that he preferred to work day to day until finished, not skipping days. Commissioners also stated they would like for area school children to have the opportunity to come out and watch the mural installation. An artist reception is slated for Uptown Downtown Gallery, as well as a display of Mr. Davies's work.

C. Discuss future mural locations and art projects for the downtown area.

Staff liaison Browning has contacted several property owners regarding the potential for additional murals in the downtown area. Property owners for the following locations are open to discussing possible mural projects: 202 E. Rusk and 111 E. Kaufman.
